10/11/2025

1. By way of filing the instant criminal miscellaneous petition, the petitioners have prayed for quashing FIR No.42/2018 registered at Police Station-Chiksana, District-Bharatpur for offence under Section 382 of IPC.
2. It is submitted that no incident whatsoever alleged in the FIR has taken place, however, on account of some confusion and communication gap, the FIR was lodged by the complainant.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that during the pendency of the instant petition, complainant as well as accused-petitioners have entered into a compromise, which has been placed on record along with Application No.1/2023. As per the compromise, the alleged dispute has been settled amicably by the parties and, thereafter, the complainant does not intend to prosecute the petitioners further pursuant to aforesaid FIR No.42/2018.

4. Learned counsel for the complainant is present before the Court and submits that after deliberation and intervention of influential persons of community, both the parties have entered into compromise and, therefore, he has got instructions not to pursue the proceedings pursuant to FIR No.42/2018.

5. In the light of above and in view of the guidelines laid by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab & Anr. reported in (2012) 10 SCC 303, where the dispute is of the nature, which can be settled by the parties by entering into compromise and in the instant case, the compromise has been placed on record by the petitioners and has not been disputed by the learned counsel for the complainant, this Court deems it just and proper to quash and set aside FIR No.42/2018 registered at Police Station-Chiksana, District-Bharatpur for offences under Section 382 of IPC against the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, the instant Criminal Miscellaneous Petition is allowed.

7. Pending application(s), if any, also stands disposed of.
