Order

29/11/2024

Learned Single Judge has taken suo motu cognizance on the basis of newspaper report.

Mr. Rajendra Prasad, learned Advocate General appearing for the State would submit that while taking suo motu cognizance, it was not brought to the notice of the learned Single Judge that all the issues which were being raised, have already been addressed in pending/disposed of PILs and various directions have been issued from time to time and, therefore, there is no necessity of issuing any further directions.

We allow the State to file response on various aspects, as detailed in para 31 of the order taking suo motu cognizance.

Directions contained in para 32 of the order, could be issued only by the appropriate Bench and not at the stage of taking suo motu cognizance, therefore, the directions contained in para 32 shall not continue and if necessary, after receiving response of the respondents, appropriate directions may be issued.

List after four weeks.
