25/10/2018

Mr. Biri Singh Sinsinwar, learned Sr. Counsel appearing for the petitioner has contended that there were on going business transactions between the petitioner and the complainant. Learned counsel for the petitioner has further contended that the complainant has made a grievance that the goods were supplied in the year 2003 and they were sold by the petitioner in the year 2008 and petitioner has not accounted for the funds received by him after sale of the goods supplied by the complainant. Learned counsel for the petitioner has contended that the investigating agency submitted a Final Report in negative form by opining that the dispute is civil in nature and the court of Magistrate accepted the Final Report. Learned counsel for the petitioner has contended that the revisional court below gravely erred to set aside the well reasoned order passed by the court of Magistrate.

Issue notice to the respondents for 11.1.2019.

List this case on 11.1.2019. Meanwhile, further proceedings arising out of impugned order passed by the revisional court below shall remain stayed.
