Order

09/07/2026

1. These bail applications under Section 483 of BNSS have been filed on behalf of the petitioners, who have been arrested in connection with FIR No.284/2024 registered at Police Station Bharampuri, Dist. Jaipur for offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 189(2) and 140 (3) of BNS, 2023.

2. Learned counsel for petitioners submits that present bail applications have been filed mainly on the ground of long incarceration as the petitioners are in custody since 26.08.2024 and as such, till date they have suffered incarceration for almost 23 months. Counsel further submits that similarly situated co-accused Jamuna Sarkar has been granted bail by this Court. Counsel submits that material witnesses have already been examined and further custody of petitioners would serve no fruitful purpose. Counsel submits that the trial is proceeding at a snail's pace as 7 witnesses are yet to be examined on behalf of prosecution and there are bleak chances of culmination of trial in near future. It is also submitted that there is no criminal antecedents against the petitioners. In such circumstances, further custody of the petitioner would not serve any fruitful purpose.

3. Learned State counsel opposed the submissions advanced by learned counsel for petitioners. He submits that there is serious allegation against the petitioners of kidnapping as well as of demanding ransom. It is also submitted that there is no material change in the circumstances, therefore, the present bail applications may be dismissed.

4. I have considered the contentions.

5. Considering overall facts and circumstances of the case and also the contentions advanced by both the parties especially the fact that co-accused has been granted bail by this Court and also the fact that petitioners do not have any criminal antecedents and trial will take considerable time in its conclusion as well as looking to the custody period, but without commenting anything on the merits/demerits of the case, I deem it fit and proper to allow these bail applications.

6. These bail applications are accordingly allowed and it is directed that accused-petitioners- (1) Vinod Son Of Sh. Bhagwan Singh and (2) Jitendra Mandari S/o Shri Ramjeet, shall be released on bail provided each of them furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.1,00,000/- together with two sureties in the sum of Rs.50,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court with the stipulation that they shall appear before that Court and any Court to which the matter is transferred, on all subsequent dates of hearing and as and when called upon to do so.

7. However, it is made clear that the petitioners shall not involve in any other offence(s) during currency of the bail granted by this Court and the petitioners will attend the police station in first week of every month.

8. If breach of this condition is reported or comes to the notice of the Court, the same shall alone be a reason for the trial Court to cancel the bail granted to the petitioners by this Court.

9. The observations made hereinabove are only for decision of the bail applications and would not have any impact on the trial of the case in any manner.
