Order

25/01/2024

Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that even though the petitioner has deposited the amount of more than Rs.37,00,000/- towards tax liability, the bank accounts stand freezed and not being released.

It is further submitted that the letter dated 29.08.2023 written by the Tax Department to the bank mentions Rs.49,20,284/- on account of tax, cess, interest and penalty, on account of double adding of the amount and is required to be corrected. The appropriate correction was made while submitting return for the month of April,2023, however, the Department has not taken cognizance of the same due to which, a higher amount is being demanded.

Learned Additional Advocate General is granted time to seek instructions, particularly with regard to the total amount payable by the petitioner in the light of the statement of corrected return having been filed for the month of April,2023.

List this case on 01.02.2024.
