Order

08/09/2025

1. Application No.01/2025 has been filed by the respondent under Article 226(3) of the Constitution of India seeking vacation of stay order dated 09.01.2025. The learned Single Judge had passed an order quashing his termination order dated 20.09.2007 and directed the authorities to pass fresh order after affording opportunity to the respondent-writ petitioner as well as appellant.
2. Vide order dated 09.01.2025 this Court passed an interim order restraining the State from terminating the services of the appellant observing that the impugned order would not affect the appointment of the appellant as she has been working since last 17 years. State was also asked to provide as to number of posts of Anganwadi Workers available with them.
3. In these circumstances, therefore we find that the order passed by the learned Single Judge on 19.10.2024 with respect of allowing the State to pass fresh order after giving opportunity of hearing to the respondent-writ petitioner as well as appellant has not been stayed.

4. We also find that there is no order affecting the rights of the respondent-writ petitioner, who has moved the application under Article 226(3) of the Constitution of India.

5. Application No.01/2025 is therefore, dismissed as misconceived.

6. List this matter after weeks.

7. Till then, interim order, if any, shall continue.
