Order

29/07/2025

None appeared on behalf of petitioner in the morning session. Post lunch, an advocate walks into the Court and without expressing any regret for not appearing in pre-lunch session, in a tone which the Court found disrespectful simply stated "I want an adjournment". We express our utter dismay and displeasure with the conduct of the advocate.

Counsel states that advocate on record fell down from staircase. How many steps he rolled down is not mentioned but we would assume that he had some nasty fall.

Mr. R.D. Rastogi, ASG submits that on numerous occasions, petitioner has been given time and the issue has been decided by three High Courts in favour of Revenue. Counsel also states that since 2023 time is being sought to file rejoinder but no rejoinder has been filed.

Therefore, it is made clear that though we shall stand over the matter to the next week, we shall not take on record any rejoinder.

On the next date, no adjournment will be given to petitioner on any account and if an adjournment is sought, the petition will be dismissed with costs.

Stand over to 25th August 2025.
