Order

05/09/2023

This Court finds that though reply and rejoinder have been filed by the respective parties, however, before proceeding in the matter, learned counsel for the respondent(s) may seek instructions in the matter to inform as whether father of the petitioner, who was working in the District Court had informed the employer during his life time in respect of his second marriage with mother of the present petitioner.

Learned counsel for the respondent(s) may do the needful.

Let this case be listed on 26th September, 2023.
