When the case is called, both sides are present. Both the parties are also present in person in terms of the previous order of this Court.

In view of certain developments between both the parties, a suggestion has been made by both the counsels that the matter be referred to 'mediation', and together they have suggested the name of Ms. Rajasree Purukayastha, learned counsel, as the 'mediator'.

In view of the same, Ms. Rajasree Purukayastha is appointed as the 'mediator', and she shall perform her responsibilities accordingly. The Registry is directed to issue a letter of appointment communicating this order.
