Ray, learned counsel for the applicant. 2. Mrs. Meenakshi Sharma, learned A.G.A. with Mrs. Sweta Badola Dobhal, learned Brief Holder for the State. 3. Mr. Tijil Gangwar, learned counsel holding the brief of Mr. M.K. Ray, learned counsel for the applicant, argued that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated and without any search warrant the Spa Centre was searched and furthermore there was no female official while conducting the search. He also submits that the present applicant is not the owner of Spa and is ready to cooperate with the investigation however there is an apprehension of arrest and prayed for anticipatory bail. 4. Learned State counsel vehemently oppose the argument of learned counsel for the applicant by submitting that infact the applicant is the main person, who is running Spa, since the Paytm account belongs to the present applicant the scanner of which is put in Spa. 5.
