			C528 No. 1197 of 2026 Hon'ble Alok Mahra, J. Ms. Prabha Naithani, learned counsel for the applicants. 2. Mr. Pratiroop Pande, learned A.G.A. for the State. 3. Mr. Sagar Kothari, learned counsel has put in his appearance on behalf of respondent no. 2. 4. The present criminal misc. application has been filed by the applicant with a prayer to quash/set-aside the order dated 08.01.2026 passed by City Magistrate, Dehradun, under Section 164 of BNSS as well the entire proceedings of Case No. 1 of 2026, State Vs. Uttara Bansal, pending before City Magistrate, Dehradun. 5. Learned counsel for the applicants would submit that applicants were in possession of the said property for the last more than 15 years and the applicants were running a P.G. hostel for students studying at various coaching centres in Dehradun. The sister-in-law of the applicant have lodged an FIR on 13.07.2025 under Section 120-B, 420, 467, 468, 471, 504 and 506 of IPC, in which, it was alleged that the applicant alongwith her husband have sold out the property which fell into the share of the complainant. Thereafter, Police submitted a report to the learned Magistrate in which it was mentioned that there are chances of disturbing public peace in relation to the said property and in report of the Police, the Magistrate concerned passed

the impugned order.

6. Learned counsel for the parties have submitted that they have filed their objection before the learned Magistrate pursuant to the notices issued to them under Section 164 of BNSS and both parties have agreed that they have no objection if the learned Magistrate is directed to expedite and conclude the proceedings of the said case.

7. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

8. After hearing learned counsel for the parties and after perusing the material available on record, this Court finds the prayer sought by the parties to be innocuous. Hence, this Court is of the view that the interest of justice would be served by directing the Magistrate concerned to expedite the proceedings.

9. Accordingly, the present criminal misc. application is disposed of with a direction to the court concerned to make all possible endeavours to conclude proceedings of Case No. 1 of 2026, State Vs. Uttara Bansal, pending before City Magistrate, Dehradun, as expeditiously as possible, preferably within a period of three months from the date of production of a certified copy of this order, without granting unnecessary adjournments to either party.

10. Pending applications, if any, shall stand disposed of accordingly.
