

CRJA No. 18 of 2016

U. C. Dhyani, J.

Mr. V.S. Rawat, Advocate (Amicus Curiae), for the appellant.

Mr. V.S. Pal, A.G.A. present for the State.

There is 123 days' delay in filing the criminal jail appeal, which is not seriously objected by learned A.G.A., delay in filing the same is condoned.

Heard.

Admit.

Summon the Lower Court Record.

List after the Lower Court Record is received.

Mr. V.S. Rawat, Advocate is appointed as Amicus Curiae to argue the criminal jail appeal on behalf of the convict.

As soon as the LCR is received, Registry is directed to provide the paper book to the Amicus Curiae, at the earliest.

(U. C. Dhyani, J.)

17.03.2016