Court No. - 29

HON'BLE ARINDAM SINHA, J.

HON'BLE SATYA VEER SINGH, J.

1. Mr. H.R. Mishra, learned senior advocate appears on behalf of petitioner. He submits, his client is a member of the housing society cooperative, committee of management of it being respondent no.5. His client was one of several persons, who complained about the erection and existence of mobile tower on the roof of building no.YC-279, within limits of Greater Noida Development Authority. He draws attention to letter dated 24th February, 2025 issued by Special Executive Officer (Land Records) (the Development Authority) addressed to respondent no.5 for taking action to remove the mobile tower, failing which it would be removed by the authority. He submits, in spite of the notice the mobile tower still stands and there has been no action taken by the authority after the notice, to remove. He seeks direction.

2. Mr. Raj Mohan Upadhyay, learned advocate, Additional Chief Standing Counsel appears on behalf of State. Mr. Ravi Anand Agrawal, learned advocate appears on behalf of respondent no.3 (the Housing Commissioner/Registrar). He submits, State is to issue guidelines and it is their policy to allow existing mobile towers to stand. Mrs. Anjali Upadhya, learned advocate appears on behalf of respondent no.4. On query she submits, her client has sought legal opinion and action to be taken is awaiting receipt of the same.

3. Issue notice along with this order on respondent nos.5 and 6 by registered/speed post with A.D. Petitioner will put in requisites. Noticed respondents will be heard as to why the mobile tower should not be removed by the authority. State will also be heard on instructions received.

4. List on 20th March, 2026 as fresh.
