Court No. - 36

HON'BLE ARUN KUMAR, J.

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel for the State authorities and Sri Sagar Srivastava, holding brief of Sri K. M. Asthana, learned counsel for the respondent Bank.

2. It is stated that petitioner has taken loan for agricultural purposes but the same could not be repaid as per the terms of agreement. A recovery citation dated 10.12.2025 for a sum of Rs.8,78,049/- plus other charges has been issued against the petitioner. This writ petition has been filed with the averment that petitioner is ready and willing to deposit the amount, in case the petitioner is permitted to do so in easy installments.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the respondent Bank has no objection if this Court is permitted the petitioner to deposit the amount in installments.

4. Having regard to the fact that petitioner has offered to pay the entire amount due against him, in my view, the ends of justice require that the petitioner be granted opportunity to deposit the entire outstanding amount due against him in the following manner:

(i) Petitioner shall deposit Rs.1,50,000/- with the respondent Bank by 30th April, 2026. The respondent Bank shall thereafter provide a fresh schedule for repayment of remaining outstanding amount, after adjusting all the deposits made by the petitioner, in twelve equal monthly installments.

(ii) The first monthly installment shall be deposited by the petitioner by 5th June, 2026.

(ii) No other charges, if any, shall be recovered from the petitioner by the respondent authorities/Bank.

(iii) During the period of deposit of installments, the recovery proceedings will be kept in abeyance. In case the petitioner defaults in depositing installments within the stipulated period, it will be open for the respondents to start recovery proceedings against the petitioner.

5. With the aforesaid observations/directions, the writ petition stands disposed of.
