Court No. - 48

HON'BLE RAJIV GUPTA, J.
HON'BLE DR. AJAY KUMAR-II, J.

1. Sri Vibhendu Mishra, advocate has filed vakalatnama on behalf of respondent no.4 in the Registry today itself, however, the same is not on record.
2. Office is directed to trace the same and place it on record.
3. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned A.G.A. for the State, learned counsel for the respondent no.4 and perused the record.
4. Learned counsel for the petitioners is permitted to implead the victim of the case as respondent no.5 during the course of the day.
5. Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the respondent no.5 is the wife of petitioner no.1 while other petitioners are his family members and on account of matrimonial discord between husband and wife, the impugned first information report has been lodged.
6. The quintessence of the contentions raised by learned counsel for the petitioners is that matrimonial dispute is in the genesis of this case and there are chances of amicable settlement between the parties.
7. Learned counsel for the petitioners has strenuously urged that this case may be referred to the Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court, Allahabad so that the litigants may have a chance to settle their dispute on their own terms through mediation.
8. The Court is satisfied on the basis of record and the submissions made before it that the nature of litigation is such that the chances to resolve the matter through process of conciliation do exist and an attempt ought to be made to explore that possibility.

9. Accordingly, the matter is being referred to the Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court, Allahabad. The petitioners will deposit Rs.20,000/- within four weeks at the Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court, Allahabad. In case the amount is deposited, Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court, Allahabad will issue notices to both the parties returnable within a period of two weeks. Out of the said amount, Rs.15,000/- will be paid to the respondent no.5 for subsistence and to meet out the expenses. The Mediator is allowed two months' time to find out possible solution of the dispute between the parties and send his report to the Court regarding outcome of the mediation.

10. Issue notice to the respondent no.5.

11. List this case on 08.07.2026 before the appropriate Bench along with report of the Mediator.

12. Till then, the petitioners shall not be arrested in pursuance of the impugned F.I.R. dated 02.03.2026 registered as Case Crime No.71 of 2026, under Sections 85, 115(2), 352, 351(2), 74, 109(1) of B.N.S. and Section 3/4 Dowry Prohibition Act, Police Station Roravar, District Aligarh, provided the petitioners file the receipt of deposit of amount as directed above along with the present order.

13. It is made clear that in case of default in depositing the amount as ordered above or non-participation of the petitioners in the mediation proceedings, the interim stay order shall stand automatically vacated.

14. This case shall not be treated as tied up or part heard with this Bench.
