Court No. - 86

HON'BLE HARVIR SINGH, J.

1. Learned counsel for the revisionist is present. None is present for the opposite party no. 2. However, learned AGA is present.
2. Learned counsel for the revisionist has submitted that the matrimonial discord between the parties is the genesis of this case and there are chances of amicable settlement between the parties.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioners has strenuously urged that this case may be referred to the Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court, Allahabad so that the litigants may have a chance to settle their dispute on their own terms through mediation.
4. The Court is satisfied on the basis of record and the submissions made before it that the nature of litigation is such that the chances to resolve the matter through process of conciliation do exist and an attempt ought to be made to explore that possibility.
5. Accordingly, the matter is being referred to the Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court, Allahabad. The petitioners will deposit Rs. 25,000/- within four weeks at the Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court, Allahabad. In case the amount is deposited, Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court, Allahabad will issue notices to both the parties returnable within a period of two weeks. Out of the said amount, Rs.20,000/- will be paid to the respondent no. 2 for subsistence and to meet out the expenses. The Mediator is allowed two months' time to find out possible solution of the dispute between the parties and send his report to the Court regarding outcome of the mediation.
6. List this case on 20.5.2026 before the appropriate Bench along with report of the Mediator.

7. The revisionist shall continue to pay monthly maintenance regularly and if not paid, appropriate orders shall be passed on the next date.
