CRR 240 of 2024

Suranjan Mandal alias Suranjoy Mandal
Vs.
The State of West Bengal and anr.

Mr. Sobhendu Sekhar Roy
Mr. Amarendra Chakraborty.....for the petitioner

1. None appears on behalf of the State as well as the opposite party no. 2 on call.
2. Two written notes of argument filed on behalf of the accused/petitioner are taken on record.
3. However, copy of the same has not yet been served upon the opposite parties.
4. Let copy of the written notes of argument be served upon the opposite parties.
5. It is submitted by learned advocate for the petitioner that the interim order passed earlier was extended till 27.06.2025 or until further order, whichever is earlier. But on that day, i.e., on 27.06.2025 the court was declared holiday in the event of 'Ratha Yatra'. He prays for extension of the interim order which has been expired on that day.

6. Accordingly, the interim order passed by this court earlier is revived and the same is further extended till 25th July, 2025 or until further order, whichever is earlier.
7. Let the matter appear in the list on 18th July, 2025.
8. In the meantime, the petitioner is directed to intimate the opposite party no. 2 as well as the State with regard to the pendency of this case and next date of hearing and file affidavit of service on the adjourned date.
9. State is directed to produce the case diary positively on the adjourned date.
10. Parties are at liberty to pray for extension and/or modification and/or vacating and/or variation of the interim order upon notice to the other side.
11. All parties shall act in terms of the copy of this order downloaded from the official website of this court.
