C.O. 391 of 2025

Soutik Das
-versus-
Sampita Das

Mr. Srijib Chakraborty
Mr. Washim Akthir Dafadar
... for the petitioner

Ms. Debarshi Das
Mr. Amit Pan
..for the opposite party

This application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is at the instance of the father and is directed against an order dated 11th December, 2024 passed by the learned Additional District Judge, Fast Track, 2nd Court at Barasat, North 24 Parganas in Misc. Case (Act-VIII) No. 200 of 2020.

By the order impugned the mother/opposite party was directed to allow the father/petitioner to visit the minor son on third Saturday of every month between 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. at the chamber of the learned advocate of the opposite party at Barasat Court.

After hearing the learned advocates for the respective parties this Court is of the prima facie view that the court premises may not be the suitable place for the visitation of the father with the minor son.

Mr. Chakraborty, learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that for nearly two months the father could not meet his son.

In view thereof, the mother/opposite party is directed to bring the son at City Centre-II Mall, Action area-II, Rajarhat, Newtown, Kolkata – 700161 at Food Court and shall allow the father to visit his minor son at the said place between 12 noon to 2 p.m. The mother/opposite party shall accompany the son and shall hand over the son to the father at the aforesaid schedule place. The mother shall remain present but shall not interfere at the time the father interacts with the child during the aforesaid period. The father/petitioner is directed to hand over the son to the mother /opposite party immediately at or about 2 p.m.

List this matter on 19th September, 2025 under the same heading.

The learned advocate for the opposite party submits that new facts have been stated in the civil revisional application for which the opposite party should be given an opportunity to file an opposition to the civil revisional application.

Let affidavit in opposition to the civil revisional application be filed on September 19, 2025.

The learned advocate for the opposite party shall serve a copy of the affidavit in opposition to the learned advocate for the petitioner one day prior to the next date of hearing.
