1. In view of the issues involved in the appeals as well as the interlocutory applications being identical, we take up the appeals themselves for hearing along with the applications.

2. Heard learned counsel for the parties.
3. Hearing is concluded.
4. The matters are reserved for judgment.
5. The operation of the impugned judgment as well as the impugned Notification dated October 16, 2023 bearing No. 466-Edn-(T)/10M-04/2004 (Part IV) shall remain stayed, insofar as the appellants herein are concerned, till disposal of the present appeals.
6. It is made clear that the appellants in all the matters shall be permitted to take their examinations and course sessions in the interregnum, which will be subject to the outcome of the present appeals.
7. It is made clear that for the purpose of implementation of the above direction, respondent nos.7 to 9 shall act on the communication of the learned Advocate for the appellants and/or server copy of this order and shall ensure that admit cards shall be issued provisionally to the appellants for the purpose of enabling them to appear in the ongoing examinations.
