Item no.09
Court No.50

Sudip Biswas
Vs.
Sadhan Biswas & Ors.

Ld. Advocate Mr. Anirban Pal appears for appellant.

Seen the report of the superintendent of 'SR' section and the following defects are still subsisting in the instant appeal:

1. The name of the respondent no. 7 in the cause title of the instant memo of appeal does not found place in the certified copy of the decree. But, there is no application for addition of party with the memo of appeal.
2. The first name of the respondent no. 3 does not tally with the certified copy of decree.
3. The surname of the OP no. (c) in the decree of trial Court one typographical error was made. "Bisws" instead of 'Biswas'. The impugned certified copy of decree of Trial Court may be transmitted for rectification under the light of order 20, Rule-7 C.P.C.

Ld. Advocate for the appellant submits that the defects mentioned in point no.2 will be rectified in due course of time in the department concerned.

He further prays for sending back the Judgement and decree to the Ld. Trial Court for necessary rectification as pointed out.

Considering the submissions and the written note of the department concerned, the appellant is giving two weeks time for rectifying the defects as noted above.

The Judgement and decree, as noted in the report of the Ld. Trial Court be sent back to the court of 4th Bench, City Civil Court at Calcutta for necessary rectification, who is requested to retransmit the same to this end within two weeks from the date of receipt of this order.
