Sandhya Parial & Anr.
Vs.
State of West Bengal & ors.

Ms. Pronoti Goswami,
..... for the petitioner.
Mr. Somnath Ganguli,
Mrs. Ujani Pal(Samanta)
..... for the State.
Mr. Subrata Mukhopadhyay,
Ms. Basabi Raichoudhury,
..... for the respondent nos. 3 to 7.

Petitioner served copy of contempt application upon the learned counsel of IIES as well as the alleged contemnor.

Joint Director, Technical Education, Government of West Bengal personally appeared before this Court. Her attendance be noted and her further appearance be dispensed with.

It is the submission of the learned counsel for the IIES that the Registrar will appear personally on the next date and he made an un-conditional apology for absence of the Registrar.

Considering the situation, the Registrar IEST is directed to remain present before this Court on the adjourned date.

Petitioner is represented through learned counsel.

Considering the entire situation, it appears to me that the matter would be decided on November 22, 2024.

Let the matter appear on November 22, 2022 under the same heading.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
