Mr. Dipankar Das

...for the respondent nos. 1 & 2.

Mr. Jishnu Saha, Sr. Adv.
Mr. Ishan Saha
Ms. S. Ganguli

...for the intervenor.

1. The learned counsel for the respective parties had argued the matter at length.
2. From the record it is found that there was a negotiation between the petitioners and intervenor with regard to the charges of multimodal terminal. It is also informed to this Court that there is a chance for negotiation. Accordingly, for the present the case is adjourned. In the meantime, the petitioners are at liberty to negotiate with the intervenor with regard to the charges.
3. Let the matter appear on March 30, 2026 within five matters.
