

02.04.2026

Sl. No.: 15

Court No.6

BM

C.O. 1109 of 2026

DEEPAK NAHATA

VS

PRIYANKA NAHATA NEE SETHIA

Mr. Debabrata Das (Sen)

... for the petitioner

1. This revisional application seeks expeditious disposal of Matrimonial Suit No.153 of 2015 pending before the learned Additional Principal Judge, Family Court, Calcutta.

2. Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the opposite party has been instrumental in dragging the suit by filing successive application praying for alimony pendente lite under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 and then withdrawing the same. It is submitted that the application under Section 24 of the Act, 1955 which was filed on November 13, 2025 is the third in line. He submits that the same was filed at a time when cross examination of the petitioner's witnesses was going on and that in the garb of pendency of the said application for alimony pendente lite the petitioner's suit itself has been stalled.

3. Having regard to the nature of the order proposed to be passed no direction for prior service of a copy of the revisional application along with notice on the opposite party is being made, however, the petitioner shall remain obliged to serve a copy of the revisional application along with order on the opposite party within a week from date.

4. Having heard the learned advocate appearing for the petitioner and having considered the materials on record, this revisional application is disposed of by requesting the learned Additional Principal Judge, Family Court, Calcutta to dispose of the opposite party's application under Section 24 of the said Act, 1955 as expeditiously as possible and preferably within a period of three months from the next date fixed.

5. The learned trial court is requested to thereafter take up the suit and dispose of the same as expeditiously as possible and preferably within period of eight months from the date of disposal of the application under Section 24 of the said Act of 1955 without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.

(Om Narayan Rai, J.)