1. Affidavits of service filed by the petitioners are taken on record.
2. The private respondent in Writ Petition No. WPA 7781 of 2025 is the petitioner in WPA No. 6829 of 2025 and vice versa. An order of the District Magistrate, Purba Burdhaman and Chairman, Regional Transport Authority, Purba Burdhaman dated February 6, 2025 is at the centre of the dispute and the issue involved in the writ petitions relates to application for modification of route by way of curtailment, by the petitioner in WPA 6829 of 2025.
3. Parties are represented.

4. The Court finds that the matter should be disposed of on affidavits by the respective parties.
5. Therefore, it is directed that the respondents in both the writ petitions including the private respondents shall file affidavits-in-opposition within a period of three weeks from date. Affidavits-in-reply may be filed within a week thereafter.
6. These matters come up for further consideration after four weeks.
