Mr. Satyajit Senapati

...for the respondents

On the last occasion, i.e., on September 12, 2025, a confusion arose as to whether the civil revision application was moved on January 7, 2025 without serving a notice upon the learned advocate for the Caveator.

Today when the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned advocate appearing for the Caveator is present.

Mr. Mukherjee, learned advocate appearing for the petitioners produced a copy of the letter dated April 15, 2024 in support of his contention that the copy of the civil revision application was served upon the learned advocate for the Caveator long prior to moving the same on January 7, 2025.

Learned advocate appearing for the opposite parties does not dispute such fact. He, however, prays that the interim order be vacated forthwith.

However, considering the fact that the interim order was passed on January 7, 2025 after serving copy of the civil revision application upon the opposite parties, which was subsequently extended by an order dated May 15, 2025, this court is inclined to extend the interim order.

The interim order is extended till the end of the month of January, 2026 or until further order, whichever is earlier.

List this matter under the heading 'Contested Application' after eight weeks.

A photocopy of the letter dated April 15, 2024, filed in court today, is kept on record.
