Dilawr Hossain & Anr.
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Mr. Arijit Ganguly
Mr. Bibaswan Bhattacharya ... for the State

1. This matter is taken up for consideration.
2. None appears to represent the petitioner today. A perusal of the order sheet reflects that the petitioner has remained unrepresented on several earlier occasions as well.
3. It is the fact that the parties were lastly represented on 27.11.2025 before this Bench and thereafter four times this matter is appearing in the list but none appears on behalf of either of the parties on call, despite directions were given the parties to take necessary steps otherwise this matter will taken up for passing necessary orders on the basis of the materials available on record.
4. Accordingly, the Department is directed to serve Administrative Notice directly upon the petitioners informing about the next date of hearing which is appearing after four weeks. The petitioners are directed to take necessary steps for legal representation or appear in person by the said adjourned date.

5. The department shall file a report regarding the service of the said administrative notice on or before the next date.
6. Let the matter appear after four weeks.
