...for the State.

1. The present revisional application has been preferred praying for quashing of proceedings in Shakespeare Sarani Police Station Case No. 45 of 2025 registered under Section 420/406/120B of the Indian Penal Code pending before the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Calcutta.
2. It is the contention of the learned counsel for the petitioners that during the investigation a notice under Section 35(3) of the BNSS has been issued and served upon the petitioners. It is submitted that the petitioner no. 1 is a pregnant woman in her third trimester and the petitioner no. 2 is her husband and they apprehend that they may be arrested by the police when they go to comply with the said notice and thus pray for protection.

3. Copy is served upon the learned Public Prosecutor present in Court who is appointed to appear in this case along with Mr. Debanshu Ghorai. Let their appointment be regularized.
4. On perusal of the materials on record and the contents of the written complaint, it prima facie appears to be a business transaction and the dispute arises out of the contract.
5. Considering the nature of allegation, the matter is required to be heard in presence of the opposite parties. The petitioner shall issue notice upon all the parties and file affidavit of service on the next date of hearing.
6. Pending hearing of the matter, no coercive action shall be taken against the petitioner till the 28th August, 2025.
7. The petitioner is directed to comply with the notice under Section 35(3) of the BNSS.
8. The investigation in the case shall continue.
9. Let the matter be placed before the Regular Bench.
