This is an application for recalling of an order dated 12th August dismissing the writ petition for default.

It is submitted on behalf of the petitioner that due to unavoidable reasons and for no fault of the petitioner, the writ petition was dismissed for default.

Upon consideration of the application, it appears that there is no averment whatsoever justifying any ground for recalling of the order dated 12th August, 2024. There is no explanation as to what the petitioner was doing from 12th August, 2024. The application is bereft of any particulars and contains no cause whatsoever far less sufficient cause. The application has been filed in a mechanical and routine manner without any application of mind.

In view of the above, the application for restoration being CAN 1 of 2024 stands dismissed.
