...for the opposite party no. 2.

Affidavit-of-service filed in Court today be kept with the record.

It is submitted by Mr. Nandy being led by the Learned Public Prosecutor that the instant revision may be disposed of directing the petitioner to cooperate with the investigation process with a rider that no coercive step shall be taken against the petitioner and/or no final report will be passed without leave of the Court.

This Court proposes to decide the case with other cases of similar nature. Therefore, this Court refrains from passing any final order in the instant revision in isolation of other cases having similar questions of law to be decided by this Court.

Therefore, the application for extension of interim order is taken up for hearing.

The opposite party no. 2 has entered appearance through Mr. Ayan Podder, Learned Advocate.

Since this Court proposes to dispose of the matter finally with the other matters of similar nature, interim order of stay be extended till 19th November, 2022.

Liberty to mention.

The application is, thus, disposed of.
