Subir Burman
Vs.
CESC Limited & Ors.

Mr. Nabeela Akbar,

.... For the petitioners.

Dr. Sreemoyee Mitra,

... for the CESC Ltd.

1. Affidavit of service filed in court today is taken on record.
2. The writ petitioner alleges inaction on the part of the respondent CESC Authorities in providing electricity supply to the petitioner at the petitioner's residential premises.
3. Learned advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that although application for a new electricity connection had been made as far back as in the year 2021, supply has still not been effected.
4. Learned advocate appearing for the respondents CESC Authorities submits that the petitioner is already deriving supply at the premises through a meter and that, effecting a fresh supply in the name of the petitioner would amount to splitting of load. It is submitted that a letter dated June 30, 2026 has already been issued to the petitioner in such regard.
5. Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner seeks time to take instructions as regards the said letter.

6. In such view of the matter, list this matter on July 28, 2026 in the daily supplementary list.
