Re : CRAN/1/2026

1. This is an application for extension of the interim order passed by this Court which was in force till March 02, 2026 on certain terms and conditions. It is submitted by the learned advocate representing the petitioners that the petitioners are complying with the direction and, accordingly, he has filed the receipts. This application has been filed within time. The Affidavit-of-Service filed in Court today is taken on record.

2. The learned advocate representing the opposite party does not raise any objection so far as the compliance of this Court's order is concerned. However, he raises objection to the extension of the interim order.

3. Having heard learned advocates for both the parties and since the petitioners are complying with the direction, the interim order as granted earlier be further extended till April 30, 2026 or until further orders, whichever is earlier.

4. Let the matter appear in the list two weeks hence under the heading “Contested Application” before the regular Bench.
5. The application is, thus, disposed of.
6. All parties shall act on the server copies of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
7. Criminal Section is directed to supply certified copies of this order to the parties, if applied for, upon compliance of all necessary formalities.
