1. Learned advocate representing the headmaster, personally present in Court, submits, upon instruction that, the President of the school managing committee has resigned. The leave of the petitioner cannot be regularized in the absence of the school managing committee.
2. The petitioner is a retired headmaster. As the President of the school managing committee is not available, as such, the headmaster of the school shall take necessary steps to take resolution required for the purpose of regularizing the leave of the petitioner. The resolution shall be forwarded to the Board positively within a fortnight from date.

3. Be it recorded that the petitioner has retired from service more than a decade back and is yet to receive his terminal dues due to non-regularization of his leave period. The authorities are directed to take prompt necessary steps in the matter to resolve the issue.
4. Hearing of the matter stands adjourned till 23rd February, 2026.
5. All parties shall act on the basis of a server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
