Smarajit Roychowdhury
Vs.
The Zonal Manager, PNB & Ors.

Mr. Smarajit Roychowdhury
...for the petitioner

After the entire list was called, Mr. Roychowdhury, learned advocate for the petitioner mentioned this matter citing grave urgency. He submits that today is the date fixed before the learned trial judge and the issue relates to opening the bank locker wherein the ornaments of the deity are kept.

In view thereof, this matter is taken up on the request made by Mr. Roychowdhury.

The petitioner is aggrieved by the modification of the order dated August 7, 2025 in part thereby allowing only the defendant no. 3 to remain present at the time of breaking open the locker and refusing to allow the petitioner to remain present at that point of time. The petitioner is aggrieved by the order dated August 28, 2025 whereby the petitioner was also directed to bear the equal amount of cost with the defendant no. 3.

The petitioner is directed to serve a copy of this application upon the opposite parties by registered speed post with acknowledgement due and file an affidavit of service on the next date.

Mr. Roychowdhury, learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the ornaments of the deity is inside the locker and in view thereof, there is urgency in the matter.

List this matter under the heading 'Listed Motion' on September 17, 2025.
