On the prayer of the learned Counsel for petitioner leave is granted to the petitioner to file a supplementary affidavit disclosing complete set of annexure P-4 already annexed to the writ petition.

The supplementary affidavit filed today in Court is taken on record. Copies have already been served.

Considering the case in the writ petition, it appears that some private parties who have already received the compensation, as it would be evident from page 5 of the supplementary affidavit, are required to be impleaded in the array of the respondent.

Learned Advocate-on-record for the petitioner by way of a letter shall request the respondent no.2 to furnish the details and address of those private individuals who are named at page 5 to the supplementary affidavit received the compensation and the competent authority shall furnish the details positively within a period of two weeks from the date of such request from the Advocate-on-record for the petitioner.

The petitioner thereafter shall implead those private individuals as respondents in the cause title of the original writ petition by putting the signature of the learned Advocate-on-record for the petitioner and shall serve a copy of the amended writ petition of those added respondents.

Mr. Drolia, learned Counsel for the Union of India and Ms. Roy, learned Counsel appear for respondent no.3.

Considering the issue involved in the writ petition this Court further thinks it fit that respondent nos. 2, 4 and 5 are required to be represented through the State Counsel. Accordingly Mr. Chandi Charan De, learned Additional Government Pleader along with Mr. Subhasis Bandopadhyay, learned State Counsel present in Court are requested to assist the Court and to hold the brief. Their appearance shall be regularized by the Office of the Legal Remembrancer forthwith. Petitioner shall serve amended writ petition upon learned Additional Government Pleader along with today's order .

Petitioner shall file affidavit of service when the matter shall be taken up next.

After completion of the aforesaid exercise the petitioner shall be at liberty to mention this writ petition for inclusion in the list under the heading Motion (Land) upon notice to the respondents.
