Vs
State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Sabab Uddin Laskar
...for the petitioner

The writ petitioner is aggrieved regarding declaration of vacancy of dealership, by the respondent. Mr. Laskar, on his behalf would submit that after coming into force the "Promulgated Public Distribution Control Order, 2015", the Control Order of 2013 would be redundant and no steps can be taken pursuant to the same, by the respondent authority. Hence, allegedly, the impugned declaration of vacancy, is illegal.

Mr. Laskar learned advocate appearing for the petitioner would seek an order of stay of operation of the order declaring vacancy for dealership.

Heard submissions and perused the records.

Considering the same, it is directed that the authority if proceeds for grant of licence pursuant to the vacancy declaration, shall not, however, issue any licence till disposal of the present writ petition and issuance of licence shall abide by the result of the present writ petition.

Interim order as above shall remain in force till 30th November, 2024.

Matter shall appear in the list after the ensuing puja vacation, before the Hon'ble Regular Bench.

Affidavit of service and copy of notice be taken on record.
