SL No.30
Court No.6
(gc)

Smt. Sumana Kundu & Ors.
Vs.
Sri Jagatjyoti Adak & Ors.

Mr. Rajdeep Bhattacharya,
Mr. Sauradeep Dutta,
Mr. Himadree Ghosh

.....for the Petitioners.

1. None appears for the opposite parties.
2. The interim order passed earlier was subject to deposit of Rs.60,000/- before the learned Executing Court. It appears that the petitioners could not get hold of the server copy of the order and mistakenly deposited the money in the Appeal Court. However, the fact that the order has been substantially complied with is available from the challan which is taken on record.
3. Under such circumstances, the interim order already passed stands extended for a period of four months from date or until further order, whichever is earlier subject to the condition that the petitioners will deposit a further sum of Rs.30,000/- before the learned Appeal Court where the earlier deposit has also been made, instead of Executing Court. Such deposit will be made within a period of two weeks from the date of communication of this order. The deposit in the Appeal court is regularized.

4. In case of default, interim order will stand automatically vacated.
5. The opposite parties will be at liberty to pray for withdrawal of the amount.
6. Let the matter be listed in the Combined Monthly List of April, 2026.
7. Liberty to mention.
