Re: CRAN 4 of 2026

Affidavit of service filed by the petitioners is taken on record.

Having heard learned counsel appearing on behalf of all the parties, let the interim order, granted earlier, be extended for a period of twelve weeks or until further order, whichever is earlier.

CRAN 4 of 2026 is accordingly disposed of.

Re: CRR 4484 of 2025

Learned counsel for both the parties submits that there are elements of settlement and as such, the issue may be referred to the Calcutta High Court Mediation Centre for mediation.

Having considered the submissions made on behalf of both the parties and having determined that this matter could benefit from mediation, the parties are directed to attend mediation.

Both the parties and their Advocates, if any will report to the Calcutta high Court Mediation Centre on 24th June, 2026 at 10

AM. If it is not possible to mediate this case on the date fixed, the mediation center will arrange a future date for mediation convenient to the parties. Mediation Centre shall appoint a trained mediator acceptable to the parties.

If a settlement to the parties is reached, the terms shall be recorded by the mediator and signed by the parties and their counsel and shall return to this court for further appropriate order by 31.7.2026.

If no settlement is reached, neither the parties, the advocate, nor the mediator shall disclose this court about anything that was discussed at the mediation. No fee shall be payable by the parties for mediation.

Let the matter appear in the Monthly list of August, 2026 under the heading “Contested Application”.

Department shall send a copy of this order immediately to Calcutta High Court Mediation Centre for compliance.
