Sanjib Sil
Vs.
Ayan Chakraborty, Principal-In-Charge
Techno International India

Mr. Tapas Kumar Dey,
Mr. Rakesh Roy.
...for the petitioner

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that an inadvertent typographical error had crept into the cause title of the application for contempt, which had found its place in the heading of the order sheet. The alleged contemnor was the Principal-In-Charge of “Techno International, New Town” and not “Techno International India.”

That apart, an inadvertent typographical error had also crept into the Rule portion of the Rule issued. At the second and third lines of the said Rule, the relevant date would be “06th February, 2025” instead of “26th September, 2024.”

The above-referred inadvertent typographical errors are hereby corrected.

The Department is directed to give effect to the above referred corrections in the cause title of the contempt application as also in the heading of the order dated 03.12.2025 so far as the designation of the alleged contemnor is concerned and at the second and third lines of the first page of the Rule issued on 03.12.2025 as regards the date.

Other portions of the order and the Rule shall remain the same.

The Rule shall be served by Special Messenger.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order may be supplied to the parties expeditiously, if applied for.
