In Re: CAN 1 of 2025

2. CAN 1 of 2025 is an application seeking appropriate order.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits in support of the said application that in the original contempt application, the fact that an appeal had been preferred against the parent order, in respect of which contempt has been alleged, had been omitted to be disclosed due to bona fide inadvertance of the petitioner.

4. It is submitted that by way of this application, such incorporation is prayed for.
5. Accordingly, CAN 1 of 2025 is allowed, deeming the above fact to be incorporated in the original contempt application.

In Re: CPAN 1691 of 2024

6. At this juncture, learned counsel for the petitioner hands over the server copy of a judgment and order dated April 7, 2025 passed in FMA 837 of 2024, whereby the concerned Division Bench has dismissed the appeal preferred by the alleged contemnors and has affirmed the parent order of this court.
7. In view of the same, learned counsel for the alleged contemnors seeks three weeks' time to comply with the parent order of this court, as affirmed by the Appellate Court.
8. Learned counsel appearing for the alleged contemnors further submits that the alleged contemnor no.2 has been mentioned twice as alleged contemnor nos.2 and 3 in the contempt application.
9. Be that as it may, the said technical error/misjoinder does not vitiate the filing of the contempt application.

10. In any event, in view of the submission of the alleged contemnor no.3 expressing the intention to comply with the order, time is granted to the said alleged contemnor to comply with the direction of this court within three weeks.
11. Let the contempt application be listed next on May 16, 2025, when an affidavit-of-compliance shall be filed by the alleged contemnors/ any of them, with an advance copy to the learned Advocate for the petitioner.
