Aparna Hait
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Dibyayan Banerji,
Mr. Abhrajit Roy Chowdhury.
..for the petitioner.

Mr. Supriyo Chattopadhyay,
Mr. Dipendra Nath Bose.
...for the State.

1. The missing pages of Annexure 'P7' be filed by the petitioner by way of a supplementary affidavit.
2. An application has been filed by the District Inspector of Schools (Secondary Education) enclosing copy of the Pension Payment Order issued on 08th January, 2026. The petitioner who is the widow of the deceased teacher will be at liberty to accept the amount mentioned in the PPO.
3. Learned advocate for the petitioner submits that the fixation of pay of the teacher has been incorrectly made. The statement signed by the employee when he was alive has been tampered by the respondent authority and the pay received by the employee has been wrongly mentioned in the Pay Statement, which is available in the online portal of the school.

4. As the school is not represented today, the issue raised by the petitioner alleging tampering of the Pay Statement cannot be adjudicated.
5. Let further notice be issued upon the school intimating that the matter will appear in the list on 26th February, 2026.
6. The concerned District Inspector of Schools is also directed to apprise the school authority regarding fixing of the matter on 26th February, 2026.
7. The admitted amount in the PPO shall be disbursed in favour of the widow petitioner.
8. The direction for freezing of the salary of the District Inspector of Schools (Secondary Education), Paschim Medinipur stands recalled.
9. Be it recorded that the provident fund dues of the deceased teacher had been released.
10. The application being CAN 1 of 2026 is disposed of.
11. Urgent photostat certified copy of this order be supplied to the parties expeditiously, if applied for.
