

W.P.A. 27729 of 2025

Puja Chowrasia
Vs.
Union of India & Ors.

Mr. Debasish Kundu
...for the Petitioner

Mr. Anjan Sengupta
Mr. Tirtha Pati Acharyya
...for the UOI

1. Affidavit of service filed on behalf of the petitioner is taken on record.
2. Petitioner participated in the selection process for being appointed as Constable (GD) under Central Armed Police Forces (CAPFs).
3. In medical test finally petitioner was diagnosed with Deviated Nasal Septum (DNS) with marked right side airway obstruction. Consequently, petitioner was declared medically unfit on 20th November, 2025 as it appears from a document at page 22 of the writ petition. Petitioner obtained opinion from medical expert of IPGMER and SSKM and placing reliance on page 24 of the writ petition it is submitted that Associate Professor (ENT) of IPGMER and SSKM Hospital opined that petitioner is clinically fit from ENT point of view.

4. Since there are divergent medical opinions whether petitioner is suffering from Deviated Nasal Septum or not, this Court finds it fit to direct head of ENT, Kalyani AIIMS to medically examine the petitioner and submit a report before this Court on the next date.
5. Petitioner is directed to communicate this order to the Registrar, Kalyani AIIMS by 10 days from date and on receipt of order petitioner shall be medically examined by 3 (three) weeks thereafter.
6. List the matter under the same heading for further consideration on 15th January, 2026.
7. Right of the petitioner to be considered for appointment in the post of Constable (GD) shall abide by the result of this writ petition.
