In Re: An application under Section 389(1) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

In the matter of : Sentu Ali.

... Appellant.

Mr. Sourav Chatterjee,
Mr. Kausik De,
Ms. Mohini Majumder,
Mr. Raghav Munshi.

...for the Appellant No.4.

Mrs. Anasuya Sinha,
Mrs. Subhasree Patel.

...for the State.

In Re: CRAN 5 of 2023.

1. Appellant No.4 has prayed for suspension of sentence. He contends his wife passed away in January, 2024. She used to take care of their minor daughters. He prays for interim bail to make arrangement for the care of his daughters.
2. Learned Advocate for the State opposes the bail prayer.
3. We have considered the evidence on record. Bail prayer of appellant No.4 was rejected on merits earlier. Paper books are ready for hearing. His wife had expired in January, 2024 and he had been granted parole to attend her last rites. Thereafter, three months have lapsed. No emergency has arisen in the meantime. Hence, we are not inclined to grant interim bail to the appellant No.4 again on the score of making arrangement of his minor daughters.

4. Accordingly, the application being CRAN 5 of 2023 is dismissed.
5. Let the matter appear under heading “To Be Mentioned” two weeks hence (15.04.2024).
