Ms. Nargish Parveen. ... for the petitioners.

1. This revisional application has been filed with a prayer for quashing of the proceeding in connection with G.R. 2. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners has submitted that entire allegation made in the FIR is totally false and not substantiated by any cogent documents.
3. Having heard the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner as well as having gone through the documents annexed herewith, the same stands admitted.
4. However, considering the facts and circumstances, I find that an opportunity of hearing should be given to the prosecution including the de facto complainant.

5. Accordingly, petitioners are directed to serve notice upon the State through the office of the Public Prosecutor of this Court and also to serve notice upon the opposite party No.2 through speed post with A/D and to file affidavit of service on the returnable date.
