Re. : CRAN 1 of 2026

1. Affidavit of service filed by the petitioner be kept on record.
2. Matter has been mentioned at the instance of the petitioner for extension of interim order. Since the interim order granted earlier as expired was in force till 20th January, 2026.
3. Learned advocate representing prosecution raises vehement objection and draws the attention of the order passed by the Writ Court, which has been suppressed in the application. The application in criminal revisional application itself the vacating application of said order has been filed on behalf of the State.

4. Learned advocate for the petitioner at this stage submits that he intends to file affidavit-in-opposition to the vacating application. Determination of this Court is from 19th January, 2026 to 21st January, 2026.

5. Therefore, in view of the paucity of time this Court is not in a position to take up the hearing of the matter. More so the petitioner has prayer for filing affidavit-in-opposition to the vacating application. Since the application is pending before the Regular Bench, this Court is unable to pass any order of extension at this stage.

6. Hence the matter be listed before the Regular Bench.

7. Parties are to act on the server copy of this order downloaded from the official website of the Calcutta High Court.

8. Criminal Section is directed to supply certified copies of this order to the parties, if applied for, upon compliance of all necessary formalities.
