.....For the O.P.

1. Affidavit of service filed by the petitioner be kept with the record.
2. Both the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the parties are present.
3. Having given due and careful consideration to the apprehensive submission advanced by the learned counsel representing the parties herein, this Court is of the considered view that interest of justice would be best served through pursuance of an amicable resolution and accordingly finds it both prudent and expedient to refer this matter for mediation while keeping this revisional application pending.
4. Thus, this Court having been conferred by the parties and having determined that there is an element for mediation, directs that parties alongwith their respective counsel should attend before the learned Member Secretary, Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court at Calcutta for the purpose of mediation.

5. Learned Member Secretary, High Court at Calcutta is requested to appoint one trained Mediator for that purpose accordingly and serve notice upon the parties.
6. Parties alongwith their respective counsel shall report before the learned Member Secretary, High Court at Calcutta upon receipt of such notice and thereafter the learned Member Secretary, High Court at Calcutta will make all necessary arrangements for appointment of Mediator.
7. If it is not possible on the date so fixed, future date may be fixed by the learned Mediator convenient to the parties.
8. I direct the parties to represent on each and every date of mediation and cooperate with the mediation proceeding.
9. The appointed Mediator, shall be at liberty to take steps, which is deemed necessary.
10. The appointed mediator shall be at liberty to take assistance of one expert in the filed of child psychology, if deemed necessary.
11. I also make it clear that if a settlement agreeable to the parties is reached, the terms shall be recorded by the learned Mediator and signed by the parties alongwith their counsel and returned back to this Court for appropriate order.
12. If no settlement is reached, neither the parties, the counsel nor the Mediator may disclose to this Court anything that was discussed at the time of mediation.
13. Upon completion of the mediation process, parties are at liberty to mention for listing the matter.
14. Let a copy of this order be communicated to the Learned Member Secretary, Mediation and Conciliation centre, High Court at Calcutta for necessary information and compliance.

15. It is made clear that during mediation process learned Trial Court shall not take any coercive steps.
16. All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
