Sl. No.: 47

Court No.30

BM

CRR 1803 of 2020

Rohit Jhanwar & Ors.

Vs.

The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Mr. Biswarup Mukherjee

... for the petitioners

Mr. Sudip Ghosh

Mr. Koushik Kundu

... for the State

The affidavit of service showing due service only upon the State is filed.

The matter was last heard on 19.03.2021.

Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to serve a notice upon the learned counsel who appeared for the opposite party no.2 on the last date of hearing and file a copy of the same on the next date of hearing.

Learned counsel for the State is also to produce the case diary on the next date of hearing.

The dispute in the present case prima facie appears to be regarding the sale of a property which allegedly belongs to the opposite party no.2 in favour of the petitioners. The documents relating to the said property not being prima facie clear, the petitioners expressed their inability to purchase the said property subsequently.

Being aggrieved that the property was not being purchased by the petitioners, the opposite party no.2 filed the present case against the petitioners.

Considering the said facts and circumstances, the revision is required to be heard.

Accordingly, let there be an interim order of stay of proceedings before the trial court till 15th January, 2024 or until further order whichever is earlier.

Let the matter appear in the monthly list of January, 2024, as this Bench shall be at the Andaman Circuit Bench in December, 2023.
