Farah Naaz

-vs-

The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Mr. Avik Ghatak
Mr. Soham De Dhara
Mr. Fahad Imam
Ms. Sampad Dasfor the petitioner.

Mr. Md. Shoaib Aktar ... for the opposite party no.2

Mr. Nilay Chakraborty
Mr. Ujjal Luksom ... for the State.

This is an application wherein petitioner has assailed the order passed by the Court below on 22nd January, 2025 by which the Court below cancelled the anticipatory bail order which was granted in favour of the petitioner.

It is submitted that the petitioner herein has been booked under sections 318(4)/336(2)/338/340(2)/61(2) of the BNS and during investigation of the said proceeding petitioner approached before the court below for granting anticipatory bail.

Learned court below by an order dated 8th November, 2024 was pleased to grant anticipatory bail in favour of the petitioner “on condition that the accused-petitioner shall appear before the I.O. within 10 days from this date and produce the original Power of Attorney which has been placed before this Court along with other documents which she possesses for proper investigation in this case and thereafter she shall appear before the I.O. , if called for, and shall assist in further investigation in all possible manner, failing which, the above order of granting anticipatory bail to the present accused-petitioner shall be cancelled automatically.”

Admittedly, the petitioner did not comply with the said order. However, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that his client is ready and willing to produce the original Power of Attorney before the investigating authority and to comply all other directions mentioned in the bail order.

Petitioner is directed to serve a copy of application upon learned counsel, who appeared on behalf of the opposite party no. 2 and another copy to the office of the Public Prosecutor, High Court Calcutta, Circuit Bench at Jalpaiguri, in course of the day.

Let the matter appear under the heading “Contested Application” on 11th March, 2025.
