In the matter of : Achinta Kumar Pramanik
.....appellant.

Mr. Milon Mukherjee
Mr. Biswajit Manna
Mr. Hillol Saha Podder
.....for the appellant.

Mr. Sourav Kar
.....for the respondent/CBI.

CRAN 2 of 2026

Mr. Mukherjee, learned Senior Advocate appearing for the appellant, refers to the order dated 10th April, 2026, passed in this appeal by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court, and submits that by the said order, the appeal was admitted and the sentence was stayed for a period of ten days. He further draws the attention of this Court to the observation made in the said order that, 'Once released, the appellant shall not leave the jurisdiction without prior permission of this Court'.

He produces a certified copy of the order dated 13.04.2026 passed by the learned Trial Court and submits that an application for bail, along with the order dated 10.04.2026 passed in this appeal, was placed before the learned Trial Court. The said application for bail was allowed in terms of the order dated 10.04.2026 passed in this appeal, by the order dated 13.04.2026, directing the release of the convict subject to the condition that the petitioner furnish a bond of Rs. 20,000/- with two sureties of like amount. He further submits that the petitioner has since been released on bail upon furnishing the bond as directed in the order dated 13.04.2026. He contends that unless the interim order staying the sentence is extended, the appellant/applicant is likely to suffer serious prejudice.

Mr. Kar, learned Advocate representing the respondent/CBI, prays for an adjournment on the ground that there has been a bereavement in the family of the Deputy Solicitor General, who is representing the respondent/CBI in this case.

Mr. Mukherjee did not oppose such prayer for adjournment. However, he submits that interim order should be extended for a limited period.

In view thereof, the interim order staying the order of sentence is extended until the end of May, 2026 or until further order, whichever is earlier.

CRAN 2 of 2026 stands disposed of accordingly.

Let this matter be placed for further consideration before the next available Circuit Bench.
