1. Parties through their learned Counsel.
2. The order of the Hon'ble Supreme Court dated 17th September, 2024 filed in Special Leave Petition to Appeal (C) No.11834/2024 is on record. In paragraphs 8 and 9 the Apex Court observed as under:

"8. All these matters are, accordingly, disposed of leaving it open to the parties to approach the High Court, if so required. It is clarified that this Court has not granted any interim stay or a direction either to maintain status quo or to stop the demolition drive. In this regard, the directions issued by the High Court from time to time, shall be binding on the parties and any clarification, if so required, may be obtained from the High Court only.

9. Learned Chief Justice of the High Court is requested to list all the matters before his Division Bench, to avoid conflicting orders.”

3. Learned counsel for the parties prayed and granted one week's time to examine whether pursuant to this order of the Hon'ble Supreme Court dated 17th September, 2024, the matter needs to be placed before the Hon'ble the Chief Justice for consideration.
4. List on 22nd August, 2025.
