ORDER (Per Court)

1. We have heard the learned Senior Counsel, Additional Solicitor General of India, the Additional Advocate General for the State of West Bengal and the learned Advocates for the appearing parties.
2. Learned Senior Counsel Mr. Mainak Bose, in his endeavour to assist the Court, has tendered a compilation of various orders passed by this Court as well as the Hon'ble Supreme Court along with an Index (18 orders in numbers from pages 1 to 57). The same is taken on record and marked as 'X-1' for identification.

3. We have perused those orders. The learned Additional Advocate General has tendered a copy of the communication received by him from the Officer-in-Charge, Amherst Street Police Station, Kolkata, along with several documents (15 pages). The same is taken on record and marked as 'X-2' for identification.

4. The learned Additional Advocate General submits that the demolition of some of the buildings is in progress.

5. The learned Counsel for the Corporation submits on instructions that the demolition has been taken forward. According to his instructions, the demolition of the offending buildings is practically upto 50%. If some more time is granted, he would apprise the Court of the latest status of the matter and the progress made in the demolition.

6. Considering the above, stand over till 14th October, 2026 in the urgent supplementary list.
